Water and Air Control As Major Problem

The regular monthly meeting of the Gulf Regional Commission Tuesday at the Ramada Inn in Long Beach, Calif., drew members of the Air and Water Pollution Control Commission.

Home Award to Mobile Man

Robert Roberts, Executive President, of Mobile Industries, Inc., has won the 1968 Coleman award for achievement in the mobile home industry. The award was announced at the Coleman headquarters in Kansas. Coleman, president of the board, Sheldon Roberts, praised Roberts "for his highest standard of professional management and his excellent growth in home merchandising."

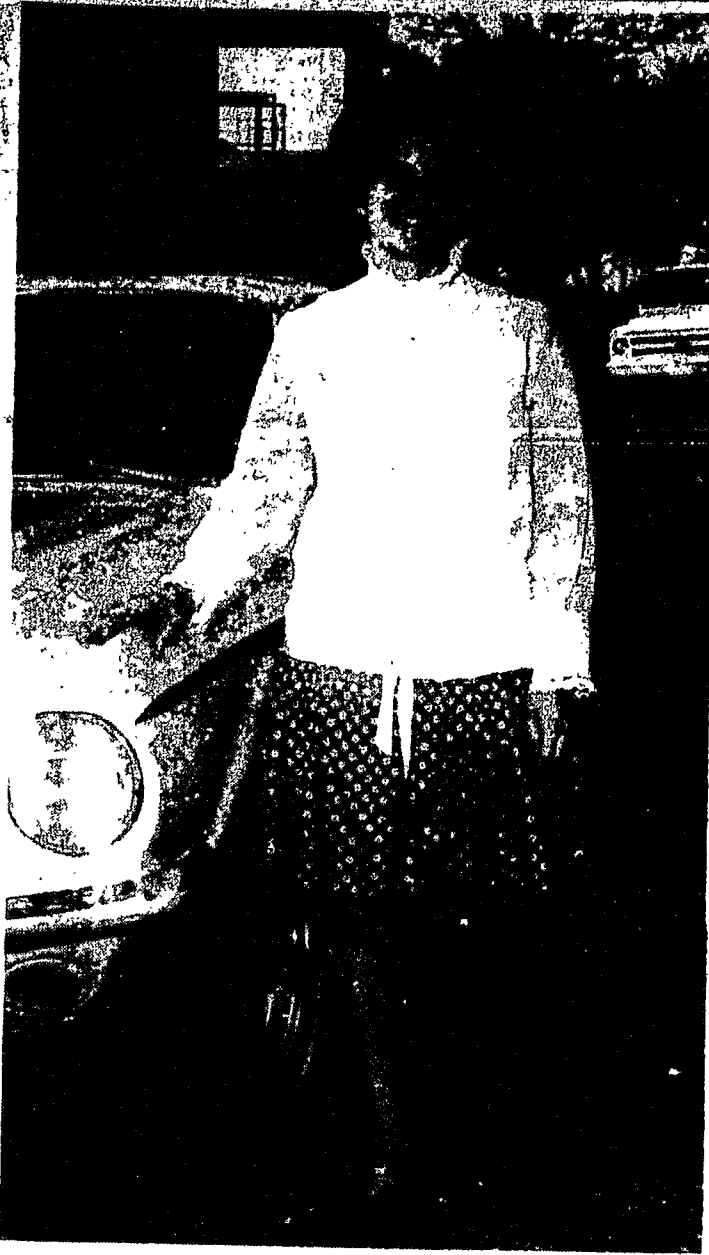

Mobile Industries, Inc., operates 71 rental sales in seven southeastern states. It has two mobile home manufacturing plants, and a service company. In addition, it is developing "super" subdivisions and park subdivisions in the South. Current mobile home industries have subdivisions under development in three southern cities. Mobile Industries is based in Tallahassee, Fla., and represents local Mississippi Home Brokers, Hwy. 90, Bay St.

Bob Wright, executive secretary of the state commission and Boyd Green, district engineer for the commission spoke. The desperate need for both water and air control along the coast region of Mississippi was discussed in detail. According to the speakers the main problem encountered in their work is selling the public on the idea that corrective measures should be taken for the health and welfare of the total population.

Bringing the subject to a more local level, for the coast region, the two basic problems are: 1. pollution of streams, 2. waste materials being placed in these streams.

The spokesmen for the state commission cited particular areas in the coast region that are presently a major problem. 1. A better usage should be placed on areas where there is an abundance of water--if this isn't done, recreational areas will be endangered, 2. Escatawa River, Pascagoula--odors, major problem, plus waste being fermented, in the back Bay areas, 3. Moss-Point, garbage and sewage being turned into the back Bay areas, 4. Biloxi Bay--Industrial waste being dumped from facilities along the industrial seaway 5. Bay St. Louis--Water in good condition now, protection should be done for recreational purposes, 6. Adequate planning should be done now to protect from industrial wastes.

In conclusion both Wright and Green placed emphasis that local action must be done by local governing bodies.

DIANNE PRESNELI, sophomore nursing major at Pearl River Junior College has been named in Who's Who among students in American Junior Colleges. Dianne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E.E. # DEMANDS BACKED BY THREATS OF LAWLESSNESS SHOULD BE REJECTED

When we read the Associated Press story yesterday announcing that all twenty-six demands made by protesting students at Mississippi Valley State College have been acquiesced to, we were ready to turn in our green John Bell Williams colored card.

The only facts we have to go on are those in the news report, but if true, and we assume they are true, our governor and State Board of Education have not learned from the mistakes of other colleges in other sections of the nation.

It would not make a lot of difference if all twenty-six demands are perfectly reasonable, the fact that they are demands backed by threats of lawlessness gives ample reason to reject them. If on the other hand the students are making demands for a conference with the college authorities and try to work out their desires for changes, then it would be an entirely different story. But to give to an angry mob under duress will lead to nothing more than further demands backed by more threats.

The news story to which we refer did not list all twenty-six demands, but if they are similar to those made by lawless elements in other colleges, we would not be surprised if one requirement was for President J. H. White to change his last name to Black. They did demand that the president's wife be removed from her job in the school office because they felt she was not nice to them.

Here are some of the demands made on the college: An effort to attract prominent blacks to the campus (speakers, politicians, educators, entertainers, etc.). On the surface, this would appear reasonable if those making the requests are acting in good faith. On the other hand if they are given a carte blanche or shield, it could mean such statements as the revolutionary Eldridge Cleaver, or Rap Brown and Sidney Carmichael.

They demanded and it was agreed by the administration, that the college support for black organizations on campus including the Black Panthers. Since when has our governor and the State Board of Education gotten soft on this sort of thing?

Further demands were: Student representation on all policy-making bodies on the campus, including the Administrative Council and the Athletic Board of Control. This college is supported by the taxpayers of Mississippi and many of those who are attending on scholarships or tuition grants. In this case, and even if they are paying their way in full, it would appear that they should not be demanding a voice in the operation of a school in which they attend supposedly to prepare themselves for useful lives.

They demand an extension of the women's curfew to 11 p.m. on school nights and midnight on Fridays and Saturdays. This should be for the authorities to decide and all students are reasonably enrolled with the understanding that they will abide by school rules. Where this might be a reasonable request, it definitely should not be considered as a demand. They also demand black courses in English and math as well as courses in black history. President White previously explained that the college already has these courses, but that it would be impossible to change them in the middle of the school year to make them more in accord with the demands of the student group.

Let us hope that our governor has been misunderstood because if all is the way it appears, Mississippi can expect more of this same thing as the lawless groups get a foothold.

—The Daily Leader, Brookhaven.

District J.P.'s and Constables Hold Officer-Protection Meeting

In a mighty mass, District 8 Justice of the Peace and Constable Association members met on Feb. 20 at Ramada Inn. The meeting was one of a series being held statewide to block the move which would abolish the office of Justice of the Peace.

Guests and speakers for the evening included Senator pro tem, Merle Palmer, Jackson Co.; Senator Martin Smith, Pearl River and Hancock Counties; Senator Nap Casabier, Harrison Co.; Rep. Walter James Phillips, Hancock and Pearl River Counties; Inspector George Saxon of the State Highway Safety Patrol; Rep. Lennie Smith, Pearl River and Hancock Counties; Judge Thos. Kelly, past president, J.P. and Constable Assoc.; Jackson Mayo Scruggs, president, J.P. and Constable Assoc.

Termed the last citadel of "blue rights," J.P.'s are closer to the people than any other judicial body, agreed the speakers. Amihilation of the office would result in serious loss to every county's financial structure, and work a hardship upon the people, as well as the county itself.

County Supervisor Russell Elliott made the opening address of the meeting. Host for the group was Judge Neilus Rhodes, Bay St. Louis, while the meeting place was provided by Hancock County Sheriff Fred Curet who was accompanied to the meeting by Rep. Wm. Kelly, sheriff's dept. Chaplain.

J.P. and constable membership for the district is drawn from Pearl River, Stone, Hancock, Harrison, Jackson, and George Counties.

County Agent's Notes

Selection of soybean varieties can be an important factor in how profitable your production is.

Some things to consider when selecting a variety or combination of varieties include yield potential, growth habit, maturity date, disease resistance, suitability for the soil type, competitiveness with weeds and the availability of seed.

Make sure that you select a variety that is adapted to the South since the mid-western varieties will not yield satisfactorily down here.

For poorly drained clay soils where phytophthora root rot is a problem, Semmo would probably be the best variety to plant as it has a high degree of resistance to the disease.

Where severe infestations of johnsongrass and cockspur exist, both Bragg and Semmo have out yielded Lee beans.

Lee variety is best adapted to the Delta and north Mississippi. Bragg yields well in these areas. South of Highway 80, Bragg is probably the best variety to plant.

Stagger your combining chores next fall by varying maturity dates. Hill is the earliest maturing bean and generally is ready September 20. Lee matures October 15, Bragg October 24, and in the southern part of the state, Hardee matures around November.

Check with your local County Agent, John W. Smith, for varieties to plant. Buy high quality seed, follow all recommendations and make high yields this year.

Highway 607 To Be 4-Laned

Highway construction which will provide Mississippi Gulf Coast residents with a 4-lane route to New Orleans and other points west even before Interstate 10 is completed, is scheduled to start March 3.

Southern District Highway Commissioner W. H. "Shag" Pyron, who has been striving to provide this facility for Coast and visiting motorists prior to the completion of I-10, made the announcement from his office in Hazelhurst.

The dual project in Hancock County calls for 4-laning and paving Mississippi Highway 607 from U.S. 90 to Interstate 10, and paving 2.3 miles of I-10 from the 607-I-10 interchange west to East Pearl River Bridge.

"All Mississippians will benefit from this 4-lane facility because they can visit their own beautiful Gulf Coast then New Orleans, or vice-versa," Commissioner Pyron said when issuing the work order.

"The completion target date is mid-summer of next year," he added. Both projects total 9.77 miles, which means Highway 607 measures approximately 5.5 miles from Highway 90 to I-10. Mississippi Highway Department supervisor will be handled by Project Engineer Dan Hillman of Poplarville, while on a District level, J. F. Brownlee, District Six Engineer, will administer the project.

A resolution was adopted by the board requesting city officials of Bay St. Louis to borrow needed money for the purpose of constructing, lighting and equipping a baseball field and the installation of lighting facilities on existing tennis courts.

The total money requested for the project was $38,000, to be borrowed under authorization of house bill 21, extraordinary legislative session of 1968, and all amendments of the bill under 1966 state legislation.

Ten federal agencies along the Gulf Coast were host to approximately 650 high school seniors from 16 different schools in Southern Mississippi. This group, interested in engineering, had an opportunity to see engineers working on the NASA test tower and on the Boeing built first stage booster of the Apollo/Saturn launch vehicle. They talked with government engineers and contractor engineers of North American Rockwell Corporation and Boeing Company and had an opportunity to see the Government-Industry team in action at MTF.

Highway 11 Given Back To County

Highway 11, which runs through the buffer zone on the NASA complex, in the northern part of Hancock County has been turned back over to the county for maintenance. This action came in a letter from Southern District Highway Commissioner W. H. "Shag" Pyron recently.

Tuesday the Hancock County Board of Supervisors went to Jackson, along with State Representative Walter James Phillips, State Senator Martin Smith, and State Senator Nap Cassibry to discuss the problem created by throwing the maintenance back on the county.

According to the Board of Supervisors, the expense involved in up-keep and repair work - would be too expensive from a financial standpoint. The highway in question runs from the Santa Rosa community to the Louisiana state line, running parallel to Highway 59.

According to the State Highway Dept. in Jackson, the state department has run traffic counts, studies on origin and destination of traffic flow - after all consideration to facts gathered - the state highway department didn't see where their up-keep would be feasible.

According to Charles Russ III, the highway runs only 2.7 miles and has five wooden bridges on it, that would be costly to maintain by the county.

According to Russ, the attempt to get the state highway department to take back this highway for maintenance looks dim.

Russ further stated only two alternative are left to the Board of Supervisors, (1) Maintain the highway or (2) close the highway.

Choose You This Day Whom Ye Will Serve

What can you lift?

God has a way of teaching spiritual truths through physical facts.

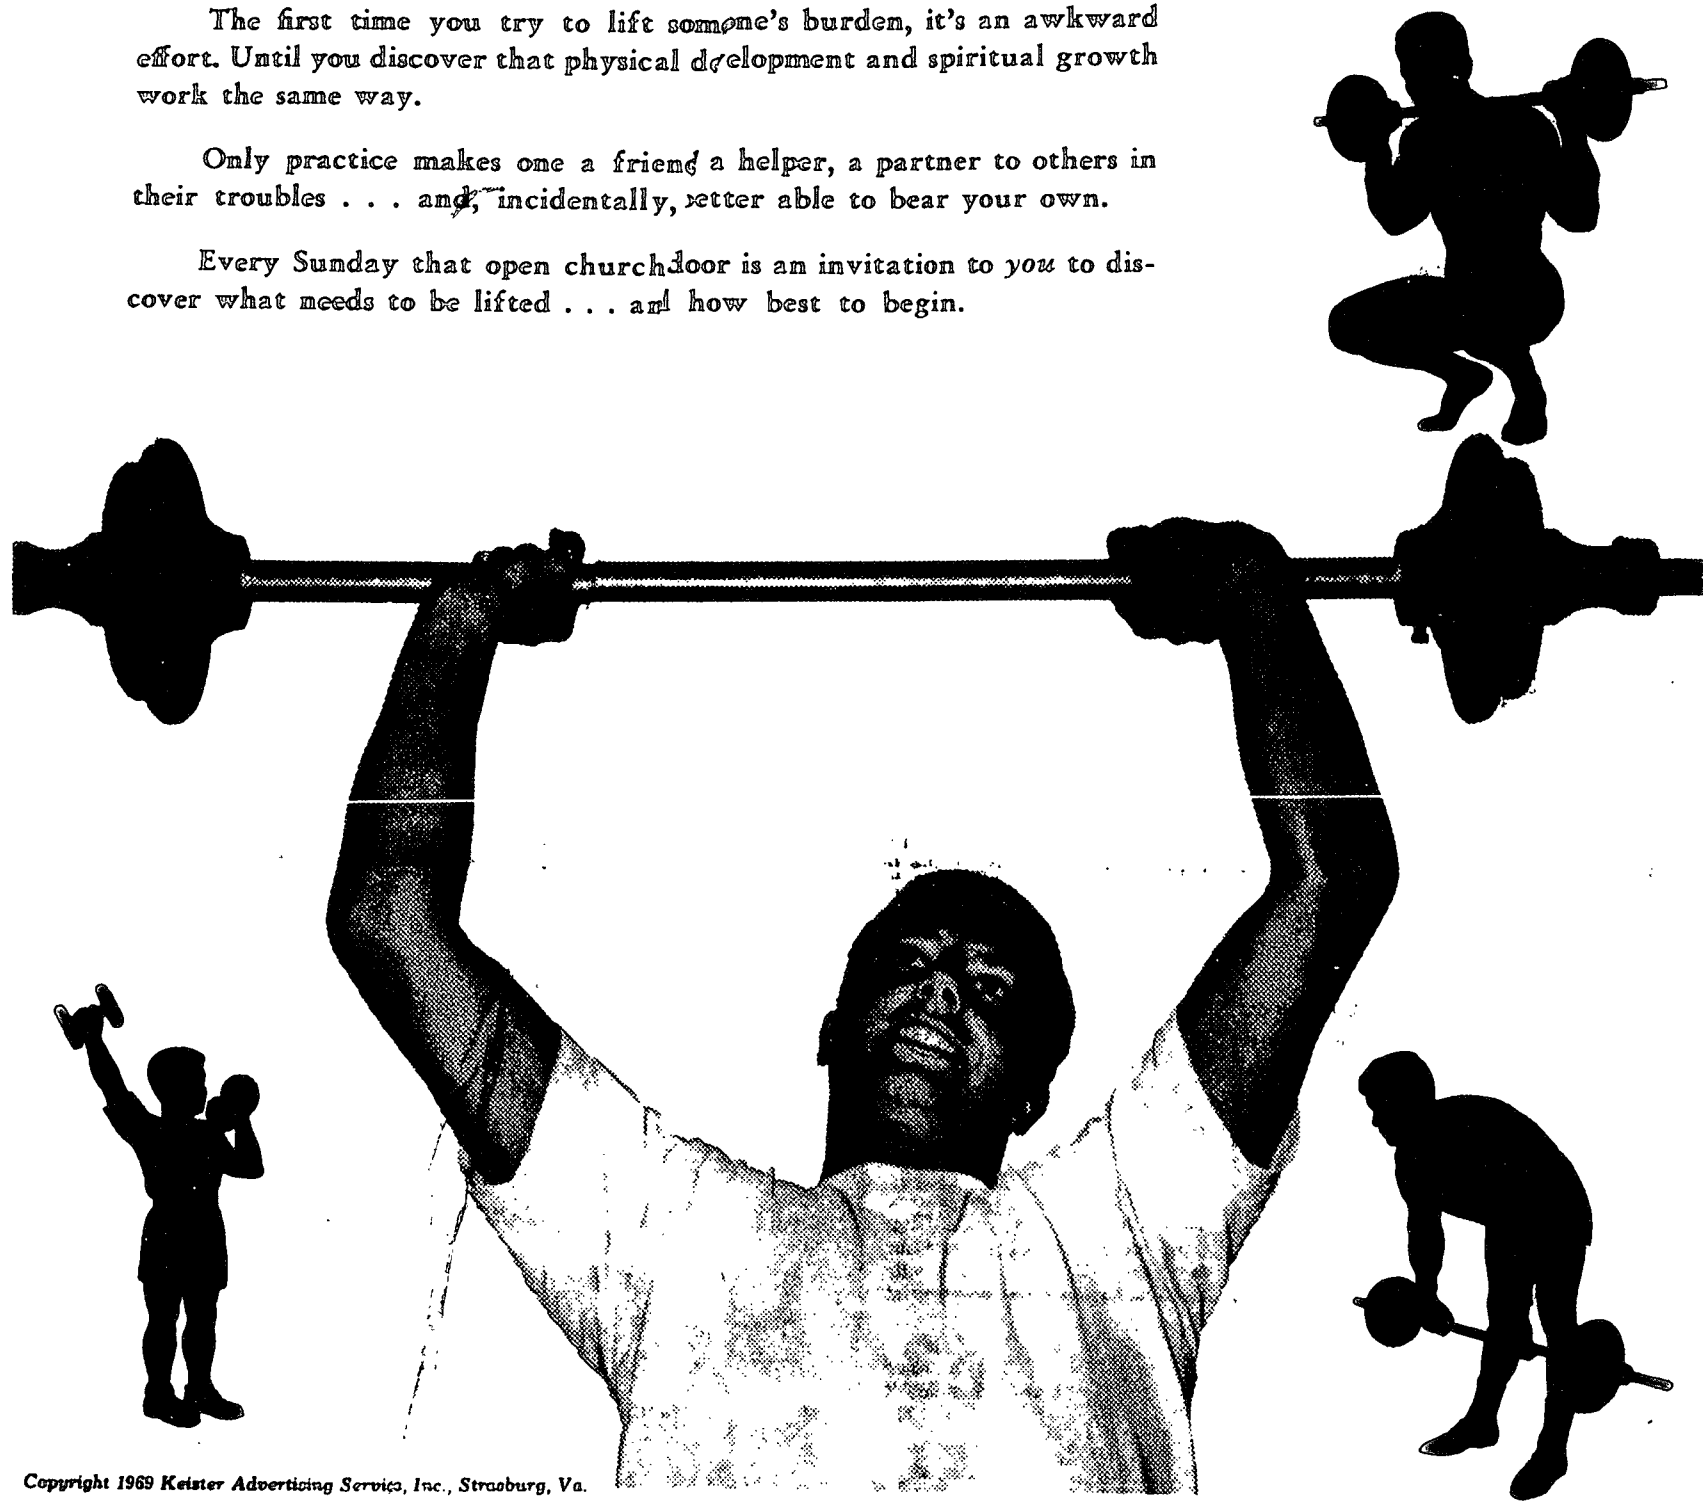

Tom used to have trouble lifting his father's shopping bag—not any more!

That smile on his face isn't triumph—it's confidence. Given a few weeks, Tom will be lifting even heavier weights.

The first time you try to lift someone's burden, it's an awkward effort. Until you discover that physical development and spiritual growth work the same way.

Only practice makes one a friend, a helper, a partner to others in their troubles . . . and, incidentally, better able to bear your own.

Every Sunday that open church door is an invitation to you to discover what needs to be lifted . . . and how best to begin.

KANTCHA KETCHUM

By L.S. (Doc) Elliott

Inclement weather is still hanging around making fishing on the bay side. Most streams are dirty and high water hindered fishing. Fresh water fishing is improving. It should be better this weekend. Regardless of the bad conditions a few bass and perch were caught over the weekend. Salt water fishing will also improve.

Have met a number of new folks recently. Among them is Cephus Anderson of Hattiesburg, an outstanding lawyer. Cephus has had his fling at fishing and hunting. He was visiting Al Mercier over the weekend.

Bobby Stiefel, son of Alton Stiefel, a marine, has been on leave from Vietnam. He last Sunday to return to his tour of duty in Vietnam via Honolulu. When he returns from duty he expects to catch up on his fishing.

Emmett L. Selter better known as "Uncle Bud" is from Waveland. He has done a lot of fishing and hunting in these parts for quite a while. When it comes to fishing, camping, cooking, Uncle Bud is tops among his friends. He tells some good fishing and hunting stories, too.

Adrian L. Duracher and his brother, Francis spend a lot of time at Adrian's Camp out Blue Meadow Road on Jordan River. Fishing, barbecuing, crabbing, etc., take up most of their time when over from New Orleans.

Alden Bernhard Route 3, Box 80, out in the country enjoys a lot of pheasant and duck hunting. There is not a lot of pheasants in this neck of the woods but Alden goes where they are.

John M. Warner has a home in Gardesides on Jordan River. He does a lot of fishing during the summer months.

John Plow's home is on Watt's Bayou. John is a local boy and has spent most of his life fishing, hunting, boating, etc. He would rather fish than eat, he said.

A. K. Martinolich, Sr., for years has fished and caught soft crabs. He is good at both sports. Andy has some good fish stories he tells.

Kite flying time is about here. It is enjoyed by young and old alike. The dads make the kites and the kids fly 'em. Red Reinke was telling us how to make them. He uses the bamboo cut from fishing poles for the stays, tissue paper of various colors for the body. His daughter, Mike, is still flying one he made 5 years ago, he claims.

When young we attached a razor blade on the tail of the kite and had kite fights, trying to cut the string on the other fellow's kite. What won't kids do.

Pat Duff, young son of Major and Mrs. Howard Duff, is getting to be quite a bowler. Pat is a member of a bowling team at Keesler Field. His dad is now over seas. Keep up the good work, Pat.

Bayou La Croix Marina is on Bayou La Croix just out on the Kiln Road. Gene Lueder is owner and Capt. Maley is manager. Bait can be purchased, boats and motors rented, launching ramp available and most anything for fisherman is on hand. Pay Capt. Maley a visit, you will be glad you did, if you like to fish.

Don't forget to see the Saints play Trahan's basketball team on March 8th at Bay High Auditorium. It's for the benefit of the Little League Baseball team.

Teddy Morrell is still broadcasting. According to him he is a good fisherman, hunter, shuffle board player, etc. You know he's right.

Billy Ladner is getting ready to do some turkey hunting when the season opens. This we think is Billy's favorite sport. There are a lot of turkey in the woods and it's a great sport hunting them. Turkey hunting is the last season of the year.

Al Baudry is planning to do some fishing, floundering and soft crabbing when vacation time comes around. Al is with the California Oil Company at Jackson.

Billy Bourgeois is another of our local fly fishermen. Billy loves the sport and catches his share of fish.

Had a letter from Cliff Foster of Memphis. Cliff wants to know how fishing is. Expects to be down soon.

Received a few samples of the Tru-Lux small sander lures for fly fishing. They resemble a fiddler and should catch trout and perch. More on this later.

The average fisherman starts home straight as crow flies, but stops off for a little corn.

It's a Matter of Pride

You may wonder why we so often describe Mississippi Power Company as a "tax-paying" utility. It's because we are proud to be a part of that large body of tax-paying citizens, individual and corporate, that are financially supporting the governments of this great state and nation — and our local communities.

Each year, increasing amounts of money are needed for schools, fire and police protection, streets and highways, and other governmental services. This can only come directly or indirectly from taxpayers, and we think that they're a mighty important group.

Taxes are one of our largest business expenses and, consequently, represent a substantial part of the cost of electric service. Mississippi Power Company's franchise payments and taxes for 1968 will be $11.3 million. In addition, we collected $1.3 million in the usual state and local sales taxes on our electric billing.

This $11.3 million is a sizeable contribution to government at all levels. Hopefully, this will be prudently used for essential programs that will enrich the lives of us all.

Mississippi Power Company's ad valorem taxes and franchise payments to Hancock County and its municipalities for 1968 totalled
